

Rainy Day Man

Calman Hart

If you ever need a sleeve to cry on
A shoulder for your tears to dry on
Call on me, fall on me
And I'll be your rainy day man

If you ever need a line to cling to Someone for your broken heart to sing to
Call on me, fall on me
And I'll be your rainy day man

Send a flare up when you're caught out in a storm
I'll be there to kiss you, and hold you, and keep you warm

If you ever need someone to lie by
Who can help your lonely night to fly by
Call on me, fall on me
And I'll be your rainy day man
